Dispute Resolution Lawyer
& International Mediator

Japan Association of Arbitrators (JAA) will host mediation online training provided by a mediator of Singapore Mediation Centre (smc). smc is a leading provider of alternative dispute resolution services with profound experience in various areas. smc also constantly provides mediation training to judicial and administrative organizations. In 2021, smc conducted training in family mediation for JAA and we'll have the second one this year. This is definitely a great opportunity to learn world-class mediation skills. We'd like to encourage you to join this training program.
